

About St Margaret's

St Margaret's Anglican Girls School, in the Brisbane inner northern suburb of Ascot, is an independent day and boarding school for girls from Pre-Prep to Year 12. Boys are welcome in Pre-Prep and Prep.

ere are approximately 1175 students in the school, with around 355 primary students and 820 girls in the secondary school. St Margaret's has a long and proud boarding history and around 185 boarders from Years 5 to 12 are accommodated in the boarding house, which is in the very heart of the Ascot campus.

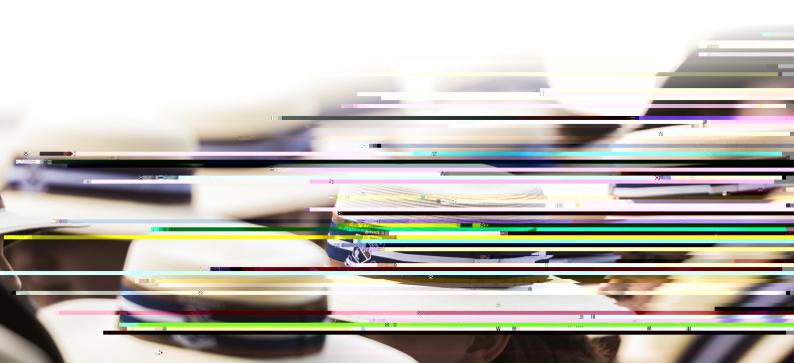

St Margaret's is well known for its focus on academic excellence, quality learning and teaching, and its commitment to student and sta wellbeing.

St Margaret's is a local school with a global outlook, o ering students and sta a variety of international learning opportunities including an extensive global exchange program in Year 10 and touring options.

e sta at St Margaret's are highly qualified and committed to the learning and wellbeing of the students in their care. e school's six core values – Spirit, Faith, Integrity, Courage, Respect and Passion – and the school's motto, Per Volar Sunata (Born to Fly Upwards), inspire St Margaret's students and sta to grow and achieve their best in all endeavours.

Our Vision

St Margaret's vision is to always be an outstanding day and boarding school for girls.

Our Mission

In a supportive Christian environment, reflecting the philosophy of the Sisters of the Society of the Sacred Advent, St Margaret's Anglican Girls School aims to provide excellence in teaching and learning within a broad, balanced and flexible curriculum complemented by other school activities, preparing confident, compassionate, capable women able to contribute in a global community.

Our Commitment

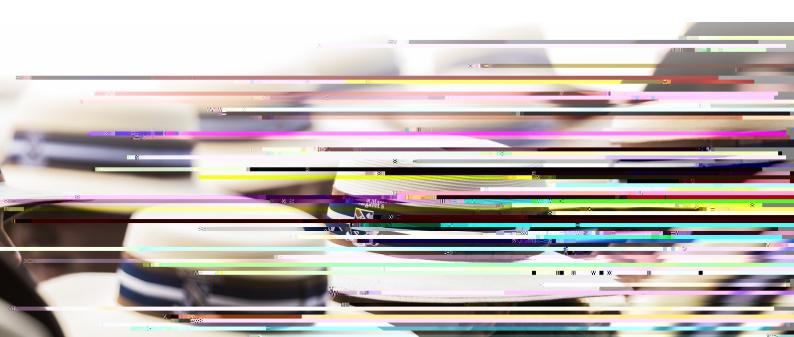

At St Margaret's, we ensure our decisions and programs reflect a lived and intentional focus on the Philosophy of the Sisters of the Society of the Sacred Advent.

St Margaret's Human Resources Strategy

e Human Resources Strategy provides the school with a comprehensive road map, setting clear intentions and defined strategies to achieve the goals of our current Strategic Plan – A local school with a global outlook.

Key Strategies

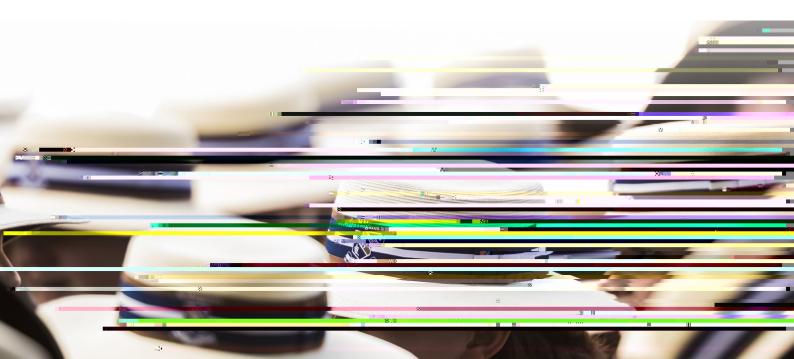

Recruit and retain the right people

St Margaret's is committed to attracting, recruiting and retaining sta who are highly skilled, capable, and aligned with our values, vision and future direction. St Margaret's will be acknowledged as an 'employer of choice' both within the education sector and the wider community.

We ill:

• continue to build a robust, merit-based recruitment process that identifies and attracts the best people.

• further enhance the induction and onboarding processes for new sta so that it is an engaging experience that focuses on our values, vision, expectations and culture.

St-Margaret'e		Stefn/europret/cv.
	St.Marjaret 3
PER CUNIPAL	Leafning Excentrice

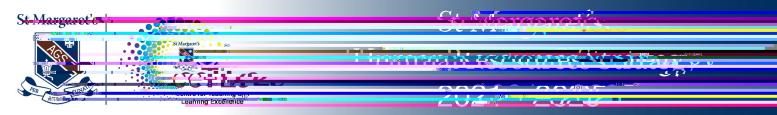

Inspire and grow our people

St Margaret's is committed to an innovative learning culture that prioritises people's learning development and career aspirations. erefore, the school has a focus on building capacity in all our employees (teaching and support) to enable them to help realise the school's vision: 'To always be an outstanding day and boarding school for girls'. Underpinning this commitment to our vision is nurturing a work culture where sta members are excited by the possibility for growth.

We ill:

- develop a career plan for each member of sta and have a senior leadership team member help employees achieve their career goals.
- provide opportunities for relevant professional development, both external and through our Centre of Teaching and Learning Excellence (CeTLe) .
- through working parties and committees, encourage employees to contribute to and learn about the operations of the school.
- drive a culture of high expectation with high levels of support to help all employees achieve the school's strategic intent.
- continue to build a positive workplace culture where people feel safe, valued and empowered to share new ideas and contribute.
- ensure a culture with trust in leadership, so there are opportunities to provide feedback to employees to help them grow in their roles.
- maintain a robust professional learning community through teaching sta engaging in Quality Teaching Rounds.
- provide support for sta members to contribute to the wider educational community.

Purposeful leadership

St Margaret's has created the Centre of Teaching and Learning Excellence (CeTLe) and under its umbrella will drive its commitment to growing leaders at all levels of the organisation. e focus will be on leadership excellence by providing opportunities for leadership learning and experience. To support the leadership aspirations of our sta , the school is committed to ensuring that the Senior Leadership Team provides an exemplar of servant and values-led leadership.

We ill:

- provide educative programs for middle leaders which help them understand the nature of senior leadership in schools.
- provide opportunities for shadowing and mentoring throughout all levels of the organisation.
- provide opportunities for sta members to act in leadership roles.
- encourage aspiration in all sta members and provide support to aspirants throughout the application process.
- accept nothing less than transparency and integrity in the work of senior leaders as a means of driving a positive and safe workplace culture built on trust.

